The Eastern Districts Junior Basketball Association (EDJBA) are excited to announce the latest instalment in the Community Coaches Project – Championship Winning Tasmanian JackJumpers Assistant Coach, Jack Fleming.

The clinic will take place at the East Doncaster Secondary College, Dryden Street, Doncaster East on Monday, June 3 from 7.00pm - 8.30pm.

Fleming joined the JackJumpers as an Assistant Coach prior to their maiden season in the NBL, and assisted them to the NBL Championship in just their third season in the league. Prior to joining the JackJumpers, Fleming spent a number of seasons coaching Diamond Valley and later Hawthorn Magic in the VJBL and locally at Greenhills Basketball Club for a number of years, coaching everything from Under 8s to Under 16s.

Fleming's path to the NBL is a point of difference to many coaches. Fleming represented Diamond Valley in juniors and Youth League, but did not coach at senior level or play NBL. Instead, Fleming is a student of the game who sourced much of his knowledge through attending clinics, watching videos and assisting and leaning on more experienced and mentor coaches. Fleming also played and coached multiple teams for Greenhills and had a stint playing in the EDJBA. Fleming also has his own website which includes a blog with many articles and learnings, to check it out head to: <https://www.coachjackfleming.com/>.

Fleming will be presenting a clinic simply titled "How I would now coach my Domestic team".

This clinic is possible due to the North East Link Community Fund.

This clinic is free of charge, but due to size constraints, coaches will need to register. Please note this clinic will be capped at 200 coaches. To register please head to: <https://tinyurl.com/FlemingEDJBA>.

If you can't make this clinic, don't despair, there will be a total of 10 clinics for the EDJBA community across 2024. Keep your eyes on our website as more clinics are announced.
