Community
Fund

For immediate release

The Eastern Districts Junior Basketball Association (EDJBA) is excited to announce our second international clinician in the Community Coaches Project – International Skills Trainer Jordan Lawley.

The clinic will take place at Balwyn High School, Buchannan Ave, Balwyn North on Monday, August 26 from 7.00pm - 8.30pm.

Based in Irvine, California, Lawley is one of the world's most popular skills trainers having worked with Carmelo Anthony, Kevin Durant, Klay Thompson and a number of Aussies including Josh Giddey and Dyson Daniels.

Lawley is currently in Melbourne for the remainder of the month, helping several of the Australian based NBA players get ready for the upcoming NBA season.

Lawley's reputation for connecting with his athletes is unmatched. He has his own purpose built facility in Irvine, and over 600,000 Instagram followers with many reels showcasing his coaching tips and talents. He also has a website: <https://www.jordanlawley.com/>.

The clinic will be based on Individual Skill Development and Engaging Your Athletes.

This clinic is possible due to the North East Link Community Fund.

This clinic is free of charge, but due to size constraints, coaches will need to register. Please note this clinic will be capped at 200 coaches. To register please head to: <https://tinyurl.com/ILawEDJBA>

This is the seventh clinic as part of the Community Coaches Project. There will be three more for the EDJBA community before the end of 2024. Keep your eyes on our website and social media as more clinics are announced.
